Captain Tsubasa NES IPS Japanese to English Translation Download Patch and related files Patching Tools needed to apply patches to ROMs Lunar IPS is intended as an easy to use, lightweight IPS patch utility for windows to replace DOS program. It can both create and apply IPS patches. Instructions are in Chinese but are easily understandable.We recommend using LunarIPS in its place. It was the best of its generation in the mid 90s and its so good that people are still by and large using it today. Handles things such as region changing, ips patch creation and patching, and other functions useful to copier owners and hackers. Useful if you need to test various parts of a patch to find bugs. Nothing really worthwhile that sets this apart from the rest, though. Includes the command line programs ApplyPPF 3. FireFlower is a textual patch format often used for graphic or color hacks. Its in French and seems to be based on UIPS. Now Captain Tsubasa Rise of New Champions is bringing video games into the mix as well and its first trailer is exactly as ridiculous and amazing as you would hope. According to the game's announcement from Tamsoft and Bandai Namco Entertainment, it will feature several different modes, though it's unclear what exactly that means. Since it was created by Yoichi Takahashi in the early80s, Captain Tsubasa has had several manga runs, a few different anime adaptations, and well over a dozen video games. Most of the games in the recent past were released on mobile platforms. Rise of the New Champions is the first Captain Tsubasa game to make it to a home console since 2006's Captain Tsubasa was released on the PlayStation 2. Important! Registration possible through OpenID and via email.The series mainly revolves around the sport of Association football. The series is characterized by dynamic football moves, often stylish and implausible. The plot focuses on Tsubasas relationship with his friends, rivalry with his opponents, training, competition, and the action and outcome of each football match. In Captain Tsubasa Aratanaru Densetsu Josho Tsubasa Ozoras soccer adventures continue as his team aspires to the world championship by taking on all contenders from around the globe. Similar to previous Captain Tsubasa games, play mechanics consist of watching the screen, assessing the situation, and selecting the appropriate action in order to score, attack or defend. Once chosen, the move is played out in cinematic spurts accompanied by dramatic sound effects. Hapless opponents with fewer wins would then likely fall beneath your thunder. Is there a way to tackle and win the tackle. Damn this is killing the fun, it seems like the best tsubasa game out there. But for shooting i only manage to get 1 or at best 2 right and it hits the bar or the post. Its really difficult, how am i going to finish this game and reach Toho. I cant even cross Otomo!!! Its really difficult. Did you manage to finish the game. Just train on your timing, no cheat will help you get the right timing. When youll get the hand of it, itll be really easy. Yes, I finished it. Also, you should REALLY read the manga because Toho is far from being the end of the game. I do not know how to shoot the drive shoot and it is kept locked. I have won all teams by normal shots, and hyper shots only. Do you have any tips. You must raise your special bar with sucessful duels if you want to unlock them. Your keeper will use a better save if you use the same button combination as your opponent. You should also have automatic goals if you try to reproduce the events of the storyline. From memory, the 2nd attempt of a Drive Shoot will work, an overhead in the second half will work, then if Hyuga has the ball and is close enough to Tsubasa in Nankatsus part of the field in the second half, Tsubasa will use the counter shoot. The last one is the miracle Drive Shoot, but I believe that Hyuga must first try to make a counter shoot as well, and enough time must have passed. Tsubasa will then uses his Miracle Drive, if he receives the ball in Tohos part of the field. The order of the events is sometimes important, and I dont remember the requirements for the distance between players or on the field, so youll have to try. Why keep the drive shoot locked!!! Anyways thanks for the tips. I am going to extra time 1, the score is 1 1 now. I managed to score 1 drive shoot second one similar to the goal in the manga.

But Wakashimazu wont take a goal from normal or hyper shoots, the shooting power should be over 3000 without touching anyone hence a drive shoot is required. I think i will be losing this match also but i will keep on saving. This will level up my players until such point i can beat Toho. The first goal i scored on waka ws by dribble and it was a fluke, he came out from his goal; a 1 on 1 with me next to penalty shot, but then i went back, so he had to go back, then i went in again, and when he was going back to duel me, turned right facing an open net, and i shot a hyper shot. Goal was clear, straight to the net Edit As expected, i lost. First extra time was 1 1 Tie, second extra time, Kojiro scored with his tiger shot. But i had two opportunities in the match where it is not locked, but the buttons are not shown and in their place are locks. I did google it and i found the correct and most efficient buttons to press. Problem is i dont know how i can get the drive shot to unlock because it comes when it pleases and once i use it its locked again until such time it is unlocked again. Genzo, i play it on the PS2. I dont think there is an emulator efficient and successful enough to carry on such complicated games. I play nintendo ds games though on emulators, such games as Bleach Dark Soul Quite Good TBH. Games under 200 MB are okay to play with emulators, but captain tsubasa 2 PS game is more than 1 GB!!! I failed to beat Toho. I ll try again tomorrow. EDIT I VE MANAGED TO BEAT TOHO!!! SORRY HYUGA FINAL SCORE 4 2 AND I UNLOCKED THE DRIVE SHOOT FINALLY !!! AS SHINJI SAID IF I USE THE OPPONENTS SHOOT BUTTONS AS A SAVE, THAT WOULD INCREASE MY SAVING POWER; I MANAGED TO BEAT THE INVINCIBLE TIGER SHOOT BY THIS; MORISAKI GETS FIRED UP AND BLOCKS THE SHOT WITH HIS BODY LATER GUYS I HAVE SOME SHIN CAPTAIN TSUBASA MATCHES TO CATCH Edit 2 I have completed the game you guys !!! The german goalkeeper was really strong.

He stopped all my shots, from neo tiger shot, to drive shot, to a twin shot between tsubasa and hyuga and he keeps on stopping your shots until you beat him once as per story mode I have to score a goal with the help of the computer . The goal comes when hyuga and takashi do a twin over head shot followed by a diving head by misaki which is stopped by the goal keeper but then tsubasa jumps on the feet of misaki to give him an extra push and then the ball goes in the net From there it is much easier, and the Wakabayashi is a SGGK Read more posts 7 remaining Related DiscussionsCaptain Tsubasa Forum GamesCaptain Tsubasa Forum GamesCaptain Tsubasa Forum GamesCaptain Tsubasa Forum GamesOK Join Information.
